BIOLEA

Crete, Greece

SENSORY PROFILE

Lemonio is not an infused oil. Koroneiki olives harvested from the Astrikas estate groves are stone milled and cold pressed with locally grown lemons. This fabulous oil explodes with lemon zest and a lasting aftertaste of freshly crushed lemons.

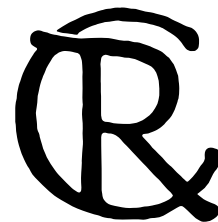

Biolea oils are divine dipping oils. They can be drizzled on seafood, grilled lamb and fresh vegetables, or Lemonio can be used to create a wonderful lemon-based dressing or marinade.

Olive Varietals: Koroneiki

TRADITION

Biolea is a fifth generation family owned company based in Astrikas, Kolymbari in the Chania Prefecture in northwestern Crete, Greece.

The company is based on principles of self-reliance, innovation and environmental consciousness. Its mission is to support and preserve tradition and promote sustainability on the island of Crete. Biolea is currently involved in a project that uses extracted olive pomace as fuel to drive a steam power generator to provide the business with electrical power.
