

POMEGRANATE MOLASSES

kamā

KAMĀ

Amman, Jordan

SENSORY PROFILE

Pomegranate molasses is a rich, dark syrup made by slowly reducing fresh pomegranate juice to concentrate its natural sweetness and tangy acidity. A staple of Middle Eastern cuisine, it delivers a complex, fruity flavor that enhances both savory and sweet dishes.

INGREDIENTS

Pomegranates

TRADITION

Kamā was founded with the mission to empower, and give employment, to local Jordanian women who transform high quality raw ingredients into Arab delights. Kamā celebrates hands-on food experiences, tradition, and seeks to create a space where people can gather around the "sufra"—no matter where you live.
